

Dear Commissioners,

Please DO NOT relax current requirements limiting ownership of multiple media outlets by single corporate entities. There already is too much media concentration and power in the hands of certain corporations (e.g., Clear Channel). Please act instead to preserve freedom and diversity of voices in media by FURTHER LIMITING the ability of single owners to own large numbers of media outlets.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

William E. Mankin